Book Review: Everything Leads to You by Nina LaCour

Because even if you know a little bit too much about how movies are made, there are always things you don't know. You can hold on to the myth surrounding the actors; you can get swept up in the story. Clyde Jones belongs in the Old West. He belongs under the stars, smoking hand-rolled cigarettes and listening to the wind.

— Nina LaCour, quote from Everything Leads to You "It's the opposite of the collapse of the fantasy. It's what happens when the illusion pales in comparison to the truth.

30+ quotes from Everything Leads to You by Nina LaCour

Fate, love and vintage furniture collide in Everything Leads to You. Nina LaCour, author of The Disenchantments, has a true knack for pacing, moving the story along while incorporating generous pauses to allow the characters to watch one another and see how they live. That theme comes to the forefront here, as designer Emi's idealized movie-set worlds crash into the reality of Ava's homelessness.
