Book Review - Pigeon English by Stephen Kelman | BookPage

Author Stephen Kelman grips readers and deftly conjures compassion with the use of a culturally and socially magnetic dialect in his debut novel Pigeon English (2011). Book review: Pigeon English by Stephen Kelman - BoldFace

Pigeon English is a decent narration of a terrible story and does not measure up to the publisher review. The dialect is interesting and the rest is just dreadful. Save your credits for a better story, with better characters, and something to offer besides the occasional turn of phrase.
